I Peter 4:7-11– “Farewell–Serve Well”

Read I Peter 4:7-11

7 The end of all things is near; therefore, be of sound judgment and sober spirit for the purpose of prayer. 8 Above all, keep fervent in your love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without complaint. 10 As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11 Whoever speaks, is to do so as one who is speaking the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Jeremy’s Observation

1. Be of sound judgement & sober spirit in order to pray with eternity in mind
2. Love one another with a sacrificial love
3. Be hospitable because people matter–invest in relationships because people’s souls are eternal
4. Serve the body of Christ using the gifts and abilities given in His strength

Discussion Questions:

1. How can you be praying for others with eternity in mind? Is this something you already practice?
2. If we live out a sacrificial love for one another what does Peter say will be the result?
3. Why is it so hard to practice this kind of love?
4. Think of some ways you as a family can be more hospitable to those around you in the workplace, in family life, and in church life.
5. Do you know your gifts and abilities? Are you stewarding them?
6. How were you challenged this week? How is the Holy Spirit using this message in your life?
