

Community Group Questions
11.17.19

Please feel free to use these questions as a guide for your group

1. What is going well in life right now? What is personally hard in life right now?
2. What was most impactful from this past Sunday?
3. When you think of meditation what immediately comes to mind?
4. Psalm 1:3 says the person who delights in the law of the Lord and who meditates on it day and night prospers in all he does. What do you think this means? What can we claim from this verse?
5. The danger when not correctly studying and meditating on who God is as revealed in scripture is that we tend to create a false God in our mind. What are some of the characteristics of the false gods your mind like to create?
6. When we fail to meditate on scripture, we lose out on delight. It can be easy to be self-focused and consumed which leads to lack of delight. What is one thing I can do to remind myself that I need to delight on the true Lord?