

Community Group question 4.26.20

Please feel free to use these as a guide for your community group.

1. What is going well in your life right now and what is challenging in your life right now?
2. What impacted you the most from the Sunday service?
3. How are you engaging with the spiritual disciplines recently?
4. As you think through what Paul was communicating through chapter 14 what are areas where you tend to wrongly judge other Christians? What are areas in your life that you might be causing other Christians to stumble over?
5. If a person is considered “weaker in their faith” in a certain area – why do you suppose Paul didn’t simply tell them to get strengthened in that particular area?
6. How can you practically work on not judging other and also work on giving up some of your freedoms and liberties for the good of others?
