1. We are in the middle of a very challenging time in our country, but it is forcing us to have conversations about race and social injustices that are very necessary. How are you processing all the current events? (Remember to RESPECT each other's feelings as we are all processing this differently.)
2. What impacted you the most from this past Sunday?
3. Like Moses fleeing to Midian after killing the Egyptian, have you experienced situations where you were trying to do something right and it turned out to be harmful which then led you to a place of doubting your own abilities and motives?
4. What has society taught us a hero looks like and how does this differ from what we learn about a true hero in scripture?
