

Sermon application questions 7-19-2020

1. If you were one of the Egyptians living when God turned the Nile into blood, how might you have responded? What do you think would be going through your head?
2. When God told Moses to deliver the message to Pharaoh "By this you shall know that I am God" what were the implications? What can we learn and know about God from the way He worked through Moses that day?
3. Moses was hesitant when God asked him to be His spokesperson, he felt incompetent to serve God in the manner that God desired to use him. Are there areas in your life that you feel God calling you to, but feel incompetent? How can we respond in obedience like Moses?
 - a. Hint: Read Hebrews 11:24-27
