

Discussion Questions for Sermon on Gratitude

Sunday, November 29, 2020

Justin Jackson, Worship Director

1. What is going well in your life and what is currently challenging?
2. What impacted you the most from Sunday's message and why did it significantly impact you?
3. As was said in the sermon, there is nothing wrong with thanking God FOR the things he has provided. Especially in this season, it is important to remember His providence. What are some specific prayers of thanks you can lift up to Him right now in your study time?
4. Justin mentioned other pastures and other streams that can often tempt us away from God's leading. What are some of those pastures in your life?
5. Psalm 23 ends with the phrase: "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever." While this is a beautiful sentiment, life often does not feel this way. How do we reconcile this passage with the words of Jesus, and Peter and Paul, who promise trials and tribulations in this life? (1 Peter 4:12, John 15:18-19, Philippians 3:8)
