

Questions for Matthew 5:21-26

Warm Up

- 1) What really bugs you? (makes you angry)

Explore

- 2) Read Matthew 5:21-26. How had people Jesus was speaking to been misunderstanding the Law? Why are we prone to do the same thing?
- 3) When Jesus started getting at our motives and heart, what was He saying about how we view our holiness and righteousness?
- 4) Why was Jesus speaking to our harboring of anger? How did His words speak to the worth of people?
- 5) Why does God get angry? What does He get angry at? Is this inconsistent in any way with Jesus' statements?
- 6) How can this perspective on murder and anger lead to our growth and healing?

Apply

- 7) Is there anyone you need to be reconciled with because of anger. Pray for each other over healing relationships. Seek to pursue reconciliation this week if possible.